In Gratitude:

On behalf of St. John Church, we would like to express our deepest gratitude to an anonymous donor of The Jeremiah 29.11 Foundation for their incredibly generous gift of $2500 to our parish. This gift will go towards the maintenance of our church. Thank you for your kindness and for being a silent blessing.

Please note that you can start to bring your 2025 Blessed Palms to Church for this year's ashes now. Do not throw them in your trash. They are a BLESSED Sacramental and must be disposed of properly by burning or bury them respectively. Please bring them to Church by Sunday February 8. A marked container will be in the vestibule.

Since the Feast of St. Blaise is on Tuesday, February 3rd, the blessing of the throats for the Feast of St. Blaise will be after all three Masses on January 31st at St. Anthony's and February 1st at St. John's.

February 2 is Candlemas and the Presentation of the Lord Jesus. Mary and Joseph presented Jesus in the Temple 40 days after His birth as prescribed by Jewish law. Jesus is "the Light to the Nations" as Simeon proclaims. On Jan 31st at St. Anthony's and February 1st at St. John's Father will have the blessing of candles for you to take home for your use. If you have special candles you would like blessed bring them also.

Remember Your Home Parish in Your Will:

As an act of faith and gratitude, consider remembering your home parish in your will. This lasting gift helps ensure that the Church which nurtured your faith may continue its mission for generations to come.

Notes from Fr. Vincent:

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

On July 20, 1969 astronaut Neil Armstrong stepped from the lunar module, Eagle. Just before his foot touched the moon, he said, "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind." The same is true of the first words used to inaugurate the new age that began when he started to preach in Galilee.

Jesus says the time is fulfilled—God's promises are happening now in Him. We often wait for a better moment to change or to follow God more seriously. But Jesus calls us today: the kingdom is near in this Mass, in Confession, and in our daily choices—do not wait, step in now.

Simon, Andrew, James, and John are ordinary fishermen, not scholars or leaders. They responded without delay to the invitation of Jesus. Jesus meets them in their daily work and calls them to something greater. Your job, family life, and routine are the very places where Jesus meets you and invites you to share His love.

The Gospel says "at once"—they leave their nets and follow Jesus without delay. Following Christ means letting go of what holds us back, even good things like comfort or security. Each day, release worries, grudges, or distractions, and your quick "yes" will lead to real freedom and joy.

Jesus still walks by our "sea" today and says, "Come after me."

In the Eucharist, He invites us close; may we respond like the first disciples, with open hearts and ready steps.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, grant me a listening heart and generous courage to respond without delay to Your loving call and follow You faithfully each day

St. John the Evangelist and St. Anthony, pray for us and protect us.

Fr. Vincent Joseph VC

Adult Education Notes

To follow Christ Jesus, to be his disciple, is both gift and vocation: a gift given at Baptism, and a call, in the words of Saint Paul, "to be holy, with all those everywhere who call upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ."

"There is no vacation from our vocation. Ordinary time is living out what we have experienced and learned thru the seasons of the Lord's life. Don't miss out what God is doing and will be doing thru this time of just being an ordinary disciple for him.

Our growth in holiness is largely a matter of how we use our time – how we inhabit our days. To offer our weeks and days to God, indeed all our activities, is to sanctify time itself. To unite our daily prayers, works, joys, and sufferings to the Heart of Christ and to his intentions is to draw closer to his pierced Heart. This self-offering allows him to shape and form our hearts, making us holy with all the saints before the face of his heavenly Father.

Ordinary comes from the English word "ordinal" meaning "relating to a thing's position in a series". Thus these weeks forward are named for examples: 3rd, 10th, 20th Week in Ordinary time. The faith is not just something reserved for extraordinary moments and seasons. It is meant to be lived in all the ordinary moments in life, too; it is meant to be lived throughout the year.

The liturgical readings and prayers of Ordinary time emphasize discipleship. What does it mean to be a disciple of Jesus in matters involving money, time, priority, etc.? How do we encounter the Kingdom of God and perceive it in our daily lives? What are the conditions of Discipleship? How will we be ultimately judged? These are some of the themes we will hear over the next months in Ordinary Times readings.

So try to encounter God in the "ordinary," time throughout the year, even when on vacation this summer. Remember, there is no vacation from our vocation. Do not miss what God is doing, even in the ordinary.

Next week we celebrate Candlemas. (See insert) The feast of the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple and the Purification of the Blessed Mother. There will be candles available for you to take home and use in your prayer time.

Also, Pope Leo XIV has proclaimed this year a Jubilee Year for St. Francis of Assisi. See insert about how to obtain plenary indulgences for you or your deceased loved ones. Sikeston's Church of St. Francis is a great visit to do this.

Indulgences are a beautiful way to relieve the sufferings and time for Souls in Purgatory. Next to a Mass said for them, indulgences help them immensely.

Ministry Notes & Updates

VOCATION MINISTRY:

"Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." (Matthew 4:19) During National Catholic Schools Week, we celebrate how education forms disciples in faith and character. Just as educators guide students in their growth, Jesus invites you to follow Him boldly. Could He be calling you to the priesthood or consecrated life to help form others in His ways? Talk to Fr. Vincent at 238-3300, ext. 2. Vocation Crucifix for January: Gerald Macke
For our parish, that we may champion Catholic education as a place where prayer and formation help young people recognize God's purpose for their lives, let us pray to the Lord

The Youth group would like to say a big thank you to the PCCW ladies for their $1000 donation to the youth group from the Christmas home tour. It is greatly appreciated. The youth group is ready to get this year rolling with fundraisers for Steubenville and NCYC '27 so look for more information on those to come! We are wanting to learn more about the Bible and how it all intertwines and are going to start a series by Jeff Cavins. The youth have also been encouraged to start the Bible in a Year by Father Mike Schmitz.

Dear Church Family, I am pleased to share that this New Year has also ushered us into the final phases of the church directory!

After 13 years without updating our parish, the new directory has been sent to be published. We all should have our new directory by the Easter Season.

We know many of you have been eagerly awaiting the directory. We truly appreciate the continued patience and understanding all of you have shown as we diligently worked to finalize this important project, along with the other matters that needed attention in our parish and at home, for the last half of 2025!

Please feel free to direct any thoughts or concerns to Sarah Deck. Blessings for this new year!
