

5 External Appearance

McMurray House

Section A:A - Drumming Well Lane Facade

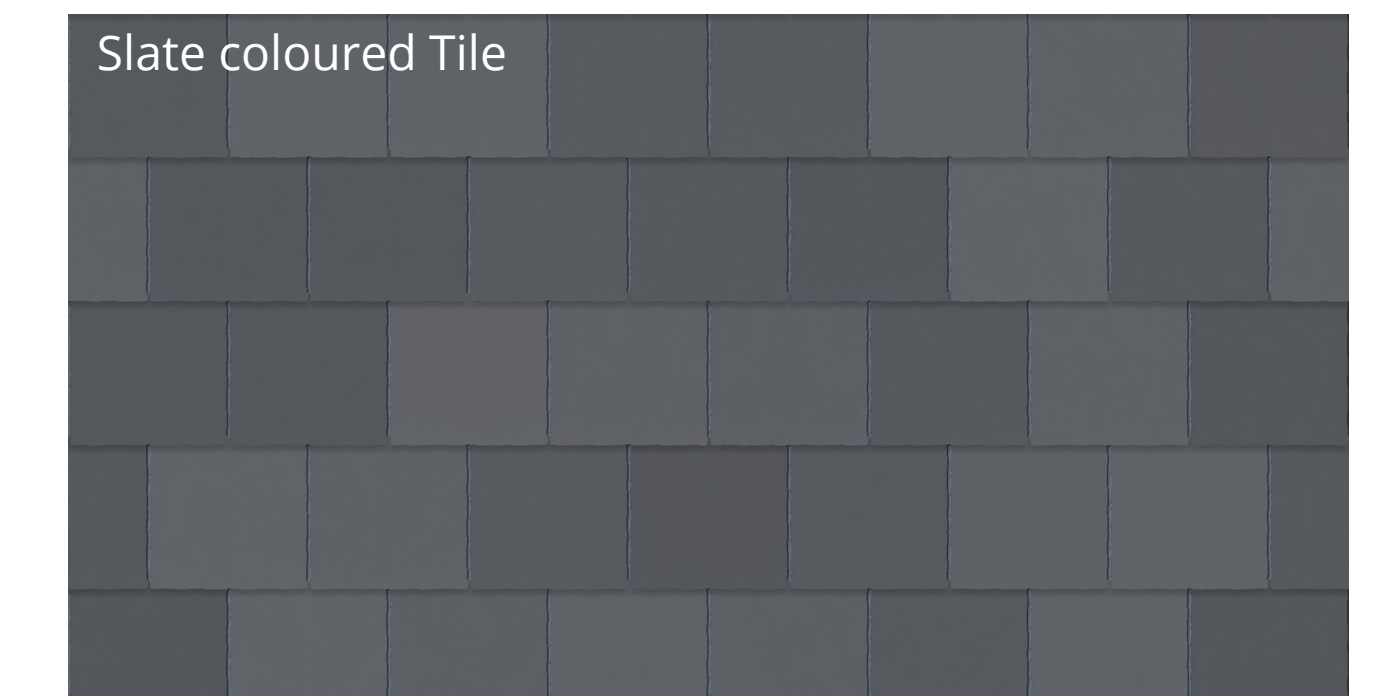

Section B:B - Milton Road Facade

All drawings are artistic impressions, subject to change.

Materials Palette

The appearance and shape of the building draws on its context through the expression of a modern boarding house vernacular using architectural forms, materials and features that have relationship to the School and the town of Oundle.

Materials may vary from the final design.