Supervisor's Report:

Supervisor Nasca informed the Town Board that there are currently no G.A. cases and none pending. Next, he briefed the Board that he is currently looking into updating the Township's insurance policy to include cyber security protection and is awaiting a response regarding the cost.

Supervisor Nasca also mentioned the 2023 flu shots sponsored by the Township were administered by the Norwood Park Fire Department. The Township has not yet received the invoice for flu shots.

The next item discussed by the Supervisor was his investigations into updating and making more efficient the current lighting system in the Township building. He reported he has contacted Com Ed who sent out an auditor for the Com Ed Efficiency Program. Also, he has met with a contractor and will be meeting with the contractor again in November.

Next Supervisor Nasca shared a card from the Village of Norridge thanking the board for their personal support for the Norridge 75th Anniversary Celebration and Parade. Supervisor Nasca then asked Trustees Alongi and Cichon to share their experience representing Norwood Park Township at this year's Columbus Day Parade. The trustees both reported it was a lot of fun with a great crowd.

Committee Reports:

Trustee Alongi relayed everything is fine regarding building maintenance.

Trustee Cichon reported on the Norwood Park Youth Committee Meeting held prior to the Town Board meeting in which the committee voted to approve the grant request from the Union Ridge School District Music Department for $600.

Trustee Wyda reported 10 cab books were sold for the month of September.

Trustee Stefanowicz stated there is nothing to report on finances.

Old Business:

The 3 new computers installed in the Township are up and working. Supervisor Nasca is continuing to add to and update the software.

Trustees Cichon and Alongi along with Supervisor Nasca attended the Eisenhower Library's 50th Anniversary Festival. During their time at the celebration, they were able to meet with residents and attendees and reported all went well with a great turnout.
