

Entryway-turned-dressing area.

Painted walls, "frosted" lighting fixture, created copper pipe hanging bar (painted), added black velvet hangers. Custom cut to fit carpet squares, adding the semi-circle heavy accent rug to hold them in place. Added signage. Moved tulle (net) curtains from windows and hung them from a tension bar to use as privacy curtains for the dressing area.

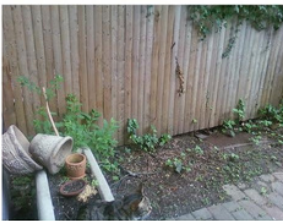

Before under staircase.

After, turned into a place for a family pet, complete with antique pewter bed!

Besides deep cleaning and decluttering, I also had walls and ceiling repainted, cabinets moved around, a eating bar removed, and refrigerator moved. I made the curtains myself and added a shelf above the window to hide the uneven molding along the top.

BEFORE: Tub was painted!

AFTER: Removed paint from tub. New owners could glaze the tub properly.

BEFORE

AFTER: Newly painted ceiling & walls. Turned into a guest room or child's bedroom.
