

A woman with blonde hair tied back is lying on her side on a floor completely covered in a chaotic and vibrant array of paint splatters. The splatters are primarily in shades of blue, purple, and yellow, with some darker red and black accents. The woman is wearing a light-colored, long-sleeved top and pants, which are also splattered with paint. She has blue paint smeared on her face and arms. Her arms are extended outwards, and her legs are slightly bent. The overall scene suggests a state of artistic immersion or a performance piece.

Commission Process

Commission Process

The commission process is a unique collaboration between the artist and commissioner, we create together for your home.

Each commission begins with a conversation to discuss desired color, size, mood and intention, based on a combination of interior design and personal preference.

Commissions are then created during a live performance or in the artist's studio. The canvas created is then an imprint of a memory that will last a lifetime.

Included with the Commission

- Color consultation
- Live or in-studio performance
- Video of the creation of the piece
- Large canvas with several stretching options
- Invisible ink message (optional)
- Certificate of authenticity

Live Performance Options:

- Multi-media: live-feed projection
- Live music
- Lighting options

Stretching and Installation Options

Creative stretching and installation options available:

- Large scale stretching and installation
- Tryptic stretching or up to six smaller pieces
- Ceiling installations
