At Front Row Center, we believe theater is for everyone. Your presence, whether in the front or back row, matters deeply to us. We are dedicated to creating a space that celebrates all identities, backgrounds, and voices. Inclusion is a core value, and we thank you for being here with us.

In acknowledgment of San Diego's First Nations and as a mark of respect, we recognize that Front Row Center currently rents venues that occupy the land historically belonging to the Ipai-Tipai, also known as the Kumeyaay Nation, within the present-day San Diego region. We honor the tribe and its members - those of the past, those in the present, and those who will come in the future. We are mindful of the cycles of colonization that have inflicted historical and ongoing hardships upon these nations. Rooted in our core principles, we hold that comprehending the journey that led us to inhabit this land is paramount, and we pledge to consistently seek understanding of our role within this intricate narrative.

As one of the co-founders of Front Row Center, he has made it his life's mission to create a community of performers and amazing youth theater experiences. Before launching FRC, Mr. Michael was actively directing, choreographing, and teaching throughout San Diego. One of his most memorable career moments came when, at just 8 years old, he had the incredible opportunity to perform as Michael Darling in the national tour and Broadway production of Cathy Rigby's Peter Pan. That experience sparked his lifelong passion for the performing arts. Mr. Michael dedicates every performance to his fabulous family, his incredible husband and fellow co-founder Alex, and their beloved fur babies, Dori and Nacho. Enjoy the show!

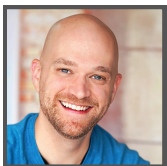

Teagan Lisama, or Miss Teagan, grew up doing youth theater in San Diego from the age of 10 until she was 19 years old. Most recently, Teagan was the Assistant Director/Stage Manager for "The Lightning Thief" here at FRC. Along with stage managing, Teagan also assists Mr. Michael with FRC classes and teaches the Rising Stars and Musical Theatre 101 classes. Heather is happy to support the actors of FRC through costuming and alterations in this production of Frozen Jr. She has been involved in dance and theater since the age of three, and this marks her fourth FRC show working with the costume team. When not driving her girls to theater, Girl Scouts, or softball, Heather works as a physical therapist. She is passionate about teaching her children to care for their bodies for a lifetime. Heather thanks her husband for his love, support, and partnership in this wonderful, busy journey of life.

Alma has worked on costumes for more shows than she can count! Some of her favorites include Peter Pan, The Little Mermaid (especially giving each Mersister unique beads on her corset), and creating an adjustable quick-change dress for Dorothy. Her all-time favorite sewing project, however, was crafting a doll in a little tweed suit for a magazine ad. Alma loves helping actors feel confident and comfortable in their costumes on stage.

Her business, Jecca Lynn Photography, specializes in newborn and family portraits, but when her daughter started in musical theater, she volunteered to take photos—and got hooked! She is honored to be part of the magic at FRC and loves working with the talented young actors. This will be the 13th show Jessica has captured with her camera, and she looks forward to many more!

This is Lito's seventh show behind the camera for FRC! He's the proud father of Sebastian and Dahlia (Anna in the Let It Go cast) and a 24-year teacher in the San Diego Unified School District. His students have earned multiple honors at the iVIE Film Festival, including four Grand Recognition Awards for Best Elementary School Video. Fun fact: four FRC performers have also won iVIE awards while starring in The Sherman News!

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

FROZEN HOLDS A SPECIAL PLACE IN MY HEART. YES, IT HAS ALL THE MAGIC, ADVENTURE, AND CHARM WE LOVE IN A CLASSIC PRINCESS STORY—BUT AT ITS CORE, IT'S REALLY A TALE ABOUT SOMETHING DEEPER AND MORE POWERFUL: THE LOVE OF FAMILY. THAT MESSAGE, WRAPPED IN SUCH BEAUTIFUL MUSIC AND STORYTELLING, IS WHAT MAKES FROZEN TRULY TIMELESS.

IT ALSO FEELS LIKE THE PERFECT SHOW TO WELCOME THE WINTER SEASON—MY FAVORITE TIME OF YEAR. THERE'S SOMETHING WONDERFUL ABOUT BEGINNING THIS COZY, SPARKLING SEASON WITH A STORY THAT REMINDS US TO BE BRAVE, TO BE KIND, AND TO HOLD TIGHTLY TO THE PEOPLE WE LOVE.

THIS CAST HAS DONE EXACTLY THAT. THEY HAVE WORKED HARD, CHALLENGED THEMSELVES, SUPPORTED ONE ANOTHER, AND ACCOMPLISHED SO MUCH THROUGHOUT THIS PROCESS.

I COULDN'T BE MORE PROUD OF THE WORLD THEY'VE BUILT TOGETHER... AND I'M THRILLED TO SHARE ARENDELLE WITH YOU TONIGHT.

THANK YOU FOR BEING HERE, AND ENJOY THE SHOW!
