

THE ACCOUNTANT'S CORNER

MARCH 2023

Spring is just around the corner, which means...

If you own a Partnership or an S-Corporation, your taxes are due on March 15th!

If that sentence just spiked your anxiety, it's probably time to talk with your CPA or Tax Accountant about filing an extension.

Three reasons to file an extension:

- Your books won't be done on time
- You're still waiting on tax documents
- You just simply don't have time right now

If you're planning to file for an automatic 6-month extension for your business taxes, you might want to file one for your individual taxes too.

And please keep in mind, filing an extension just means you can file at a later date! If you owe taxes, you still need to make a tax payment on the due date.

IMPORTANT DATES

MARCH 15

- File Form 1065 (or file for an extension)
- Furnish All Partners With A K-1
- File Form 1120-S (or file for an extension)
- File Form 2553 To Make A 2023 Calendar Year S-Election
