Jessica,

How do I file an official complaint against the Sheriff as an employee? He is using his position to harass me and retaliate against me. Instead of normal channels he had a Red Wing Police Officer contact me when no crime had been committed and had them file a police report on something that should have been handled in various other simple ways. The RWPd Sgt that handled the CFS specifically said that he was not investigating any crime when he called me...but still did it. I requested that the case be sent to the County Attorney for prosecution against the Sheriff and the RWPd will not forward it when clearly the Sheriff is harassing me for not supporting him this time in the election and he is retaliating against me which is clearly against county policy. I believe he is also doing this to others because that is the type of person he is. The complaint he had was from about 5 weeks before he contacted the RWPd but because of a work related email he didn't like that I sent him and his administration over the weekend right before he contacted the PD! This is just another example of corruption at its finest in that is very common in Goodhue County and will just continue to get worse and worse unless someone stands up to it. 😞
