Hello all and welcome back to Uppertunity's monthly newsletter! We're reaching the last quarter of 2019 and we can't believe just how much we've been able to achieve in such a short space of time. We believe that everyone has their own unique strengths and qualities, and all of the clients, volunteers and members of the public who have helped us on this journey have more than demonstrated this ethos.

We would like to give a big thank you once more to all who have helped us reach this point. As a social enterprise we often rely on the goodwill of others, and the Dundee community has made us feel very welcome through their assistance and willingness to help. We're proud to live in such a wonderful community, and we're excited for everything that's to come in the future!

What's been on?

First off we held the third Great Opportunity Bake-Off at our new Serendipities premises! As always it was a complete blast, and lots of scrumptious dishes were submitted for judging.

This year we had judging help from the lovely Jillian from over at The Little Green Larder, as well as hospitality-experienced husband and wife duo Billy and Allison. We are planning to do some cooking workshops with Billy in the future, so keep an eye out for that!

A big well done to all the category winners!

We also held our third Annual General Meeting (AGM), also at the Serendipities premises. These meetings are an important part of our calendar; not only does it allow us to keep everyone up to date on what we have done - including curious members of the public - but it lets us get direct feedback and plan for the future.

Serendipities itself has also been going splendidly! We were lucky enough to be interviewed and featured on STV news, and we have been in talks with a whole host of different talents to bring the community some exciting events and workshops.

We have been focusing on improving the services we have on offer for our members too. We are always eager to open up meaningful volunteering opportunities for our members, and the opening of Serendipities has further enabled that! We have several volunteer baking sessions throughout the week to produce goods to be sold at the cafe, teaching crucial cooking skills and techniques all the while.

Another step taken to improve our services is opening a much-demanded new slot for our therapeutic art group, Scribbles! This new slot takes place on Tuesday afternoons in place of Social Antics.

Anyone who is interested in attending any of our groups or making use of any of our services is encouraged to get in touch! Our full Weekly Warriors timetable is on our website under the 'calendar' section, and information on our other services (including our counselling and Daring for Development services) can also be accessed online. Spaces for all these courses must be booked beforehand as spaces are very limited, but if all spaces for any class are full at the moment you can be added to our waiting list!
