

Peer Services

Kyros partners with organizations who serve individuals with Substance Use Disorders to provide peer recovery services to their clients. Kyros also provides administrative support for partners, enabling them to spend more time doing what they do best - helping people.

Kyros' Certified Peer Recovery Specialist (CPRS) focus on creating individual wellness plans and providing personalized services to meet clients where they are in their recovery and tackle their unique challenges together. Below are some examples of services that may be included:

CLIENT EDUCATION

- Housing
- Employment
- Life Skills
- Recovery

CLIENT ADVOCACY

- CPS
- Housing
- School
- Probation
- Employment

CLIENT MENTORING

- Self-disclosure
- Provide Support

ATTENDING RECOVERY AND OTHER SUPPORT GROUPS WITH CLIENT

- 12-Step Groups

ASSISTING WITH ACCESSING RESOURCES

- Employment
- Financial Aid
- Housing
- Driver's Diversion program
- Food shelf
- Clothing
- Parenting skills
- Mental Health Disability

PROVIDING TRANSPORTATION

- Medical Appointments
- Court
- Job Interviews
- Meetings

ACCOMPANYING CLIENT TO APPOINTMENTS THAT SUPPORT RECOVERY

- Treatment Services/UAs
- Legal
- Medical
- Mental Health Services
- Job interviews

Peer Recovery Specialists work one-on-one with clients as a recovery advocate along their journey. Your organization can request to work with as many peers as necessary, and can utilize all of the services mentioned here. Please pass along to any staff that may find this resource helpful.

Questions? Contact ben.stapp@kyros.care

www.kyros.care

