

The Politicians' Contract

& The Politicians' Contract Act

Running for the office/position of _____, in this city of _____, within the county of _____, within These United States of America, I, _____, on this date of _____, pledge to subordinate all my many preconceived thoughts, despite how strongly I feel, despite whether I believe with certainty or with reservation, for with external and internal confusions and illusions that accompany a power-based government, I honestly acknowledge that always reaching the proper decision is merely impossible.

In serving those wonderful citizens within my jurisdiction, I will adhere to the messages of my platform in order to help unleash the expected. I fully understand the mechanics come down to consistently, always without exception, supporting the people of whom placed me into such position. When stumbling blocks are encountered, the facts will be presented, not limited to the source of blockage, of which will have signed such same document of political honor.

Therefore, every decision I make — even if it goes against the very grain of my mind, heart, and soul — will be purely made based on serving the people. I realize, in the end, that this very Contract and document will bring forth the honesty needed within our government.

If I knowingly go against the principles of this contract for any decision for any reason whatsoever, or if I show a trend of “unknowingly” going against my platform, which is mostly self-evident, the people will immediately and publicly disown me and will no longer recognize me as such official.

I understand that when dishonesty, greed and the like, men and women, in control, can lead to anything, can take a country anywhere, even to the point where it becomes law to kill others, as we have seen around the world, throughout history.

I realize that with the many faults of ego, greed, envy, and innocent lack of knowledge as an official, that vulnerabilities must not control my actions, as it is such vulnerabilities and faults, that have always been a recipe for destruction. With such, I agree that this contract of protection must ultimately become the political point of origin, “the decision maker”, not man, not me.

Furthermore, I understand that my political decisions bound to this contract will effectively minimize political crime and eventually crime within our populations. I acknowledge that all candidates running for office, appointed to office, or serving in any way must sign below to abide by The United States' Politicians' Contract, for every decision, in quest of representing, “We The People.” Indeed, we the politicians, officials and those appointed must completely commit ourselves to The United States' Politicians' Contract, today via this very contract; we must deliver this to law, in the least, to our Federal government via an Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, which would act as the overarching de facto Constitution of America. In conclusion, and with no exceptions, I agree that this contract and such law means permanent change for the better.
