THANK YOU! Your generosity changes lives.

THANK YOU

You have helped launch Webster into its second century.

1915

2015

Webster
UNIVERSITY

100 YEARS
OF EXCELLENCE

Your gift is inside.

LOOK WHAT YOU DID!

As we inch toward our second century, your generosity has ensured students move miles in pursuit of academic excellence. Check out the great things you helped make possible:

2014

2 endowed faculty positions

were created — The Laurance L. Browning Jr. Endowed Professorship in Biological Sciences in the College of Arts & Sciences and The Peter E. Sargent Endowed Chair in the Conservatory of Theatre Arts of the Leigh Gerding College of Fine Arts.

We kicked off our yearlong centennial celebration with a lively party at Old Post Office Plaza in downtown St. Louis.

James Butler '15, graphic design major

25 endowed scholarships

were established through the generosity of donors to provide life-changing educational opportunities in perpetuity.

17 donor-sponsored

annual scholarships were created to support dedicated students whose talents are greater than their economic resources.

Gorlok volleyball, baseball and women's soccer and tennis teams each made it to the NCAA III national championships and once again had the top finish in the St. Louis Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

Cassia Thompson '15, acting major

When you have a great passion to make an impact, there is nothing that can keep you from achieving it...the fact that you are breathing means you are unstoppable.

St. Louis-native actress, singer and human rights activist Jenifer Lewis, BA '79 was this year's inspiring commencement speaker.

6,574 students

ranging in age from 20–83 graduated from Webster in May 2015.

2015
