

Join Us!

Flute “Artist In Residence” Camp with Suzanne Teng & Gilbert Levy

Thurs, July 24 – Sun, July 27, 2025

The Riverview Retreat Center

Camp Pecometh, 136 Bookers Wharf Rd., Centreville, MD 21617

The Woodland Heart Ancient Flute Alliance presents a 4-day Musical Retreat on the banks of the Chester River in Maryland.

SUZANNE TENG has been described by the Los Angeles Times as a “brilliant flutist” who “plays music for the soul.” Originally from Berkeley, California, she received her Master’s degree in music from Boston University’s School for the Arts and completed the coursework for the PhD in ethnomusicology at UCLA where her focus was on music and healing. She plays an extensive array of flutes from around the world and is a renowned music educator who has taught at conservatories, colleges and universities, music camps, schools and conventions for over 40 years.

Along with her husband/music partner GILBERT LEVY - a New Orleans born drummer who has performed with jazz greats Wynton and Branford Marsalis - she has released seven critically acclaimed albums. They have won numerous awards including the Independent Music Awards (twice), International Acoustic Music Awards, Los Angeles Music Awards, New Mexico Music Awards, Native America Style Flute Awards Album of the Year, Akademia Music Awards, Global Music Awards (Gold Medal), Peace Song Awards, and InterContinental Music Awards. Suzanne was recently awarded the Best Multiple Flutes Player Award from the World Flute Society.

Our location has a limited number of rooms with First Class accommodations in the Riverview Retreat Center, which has 4 star semi-private hotel room style sleeping rooms with a private bath. Additional sleeping arrangements are available in the Bunk House for more economy minded participants and there is an option for staying on the property in your own campers/mobile homes. The property offers wonderful hiking trails and water features (beaches, swimming pool, kayaking and canoeing) available to us. We will eat amazing buffet style meals (with excellent quality food), have 2 separate meeting rooms for our use, outdoor fire pits, and a large dining hall which will double as our Open Mic Concert Hall, all conveniently located in 1 large building with convenient parking. Handicapped accessibility is available as well as dietary accommodations. The structure of the weekend will include a concert, workshops with our guest artists, flutes available for purchase from several flute makers, hikes, canoeing/kayaking options (extra fee), open mic time and evening fire circles. We will begin our time together on Thursday afternoon and continue until Sunday lunchtime. The costs for the full weekend will include 3 nights, 9 meals and full use of the facilities. Choose the options that will work best for you!

More information available at:

Website: www.woodlandheartflute.org

Email: flutemedicine@gmail.com

