guard • i • an n.

A person lawfully invested with the power, and charged with the duty, of taking care of the person who is incapable of doing so because of age or other incapacity. Certain states do not allow anyone other than a biological parent to be appointed as guardian of minor children in the event of one parent's death. Please call your Provider Law Firm for instructions for your state.

Note to Louisiana residents: Although the provision in a Will providing for a guardian of minor children is not binding in your state, it is highly persuasive in a proceeding for the appointment of a guardian and should be included in the Will of any person with minor children.

trus • tee n.

A person appointed to manage the financial affairs of the one who is legally incapable of doing so because of age or other incapacity.

joint tenants with right of survivorship n.

A single property owned by two or more persons, under one title, with equal rights to the property. At the death of one joint tenant, the property transfers to the surviving tenant.

Option A I want my assets to pass to my spouse and children as follows:

- To my spouse, if surviving.
- If my spouse predeceases me, my assets will be divided in equal shares to my children.
- If any of my children predecease me, that child's share shall be distributed to his or her children in equal shares.
- In the event my spouse and all of my children and descendants fail to survive me, I want my assets to be distributed as follows:

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

JOINT TENANTS WITH RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP

If you own property jointly with another person as "joint tenants with right of survivorship," your interest in that property will pass to the survivor upon your death. It will not pass according to the terms of your Will. If you own property jointly with another person without right of survivorship, your interest in that property will pass according to the provisions in your Will.

Note: Idaho and Louisiana residents, contact your Provider Law Firm for information particular to your state.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

BENEFICIARY DESIGNATIONS

You should know that decisions you have already made regarding title to property will determine distribution of that property in the future. Will provisions cannot alter those decisions. A beneficiary designation is a binding contractual obligation and a Will provision will not alter that designation.

Beneficiary designations in life insurance policies, retirement plans, annuities, bank accounts with a named "Due on Death" (DOD) beneficiary, etc., will determine who receives those moneys upon your death, not your Will.

MORTGAGED PROPERTY

- If you leave to a named beneficiary real/immovable property which is mortgaged, that property will generally pass under your Will to the beneficiary subject to the debt secured by the mortgage.
- If you wish to leave the property free and clear of the mortgage debt, you must include a provision in your Will directing the debt to be paid from the other assets of your estate, provided sufficient assets are available.

Note: Louisiana residents, contact your Provider Law Firm for information particular to your state.

* Louisiana & Missouri Residents: Under law, the Personal Representative serves with Court supervision. Certain actions can be taken by your Personal Representative only after obtaining Court approval, including the sale or transfer of any real estate which is part of your estate. However, you can waive certain Court supervision by electing "Independent Administration" of your estate. By electing "Independent Administration" the expenses associated with probate administration may be lessened. However, because there is less Court supervision, there is a greater chance of dishonesty by the Personal Representative and they must secure the service of an attorney on legal questions arising in connection with the administration of the estate.

Do you wish to elect "Independent Administration" for your estate? Y N
