Who's Installing Your Appliances??

At Sullivan Appliance, we take pride in our work, and our delivery and installation quality is a top priority. We ensure our crews are trained on all the appliances and are using proper techniques when delivering. Our company's leadership is out in the field almost every day of the week ensuring installs are done to the highest standard. We will also regularly check in with your field superintendents to get feedback on our performance and any recommendations on how we can better serve you.

Our Only Focus Is You, The Builder!

Our team is highly trained in the appliance and construction industry, and that is our focus. We know the needs of the Builder and we have tailored our business to best suit you. We don't want to just sell you appliances, we want to partner with you to ensure you are getting the best appliances for the type of homes that you build. We will also hold training events for your sales staff as often as you would like.

The following pages highlight some of our best selling lines for new homes. Feel free to contact us for more information.
