

Meet Angel Feliciano, M.D.

Angel Feliciano, M.D. is a Board Certified Emergency Medicine physician on the medical staff of Bethesda Memorial Hospital. He is employed with Sterling Healthcare Group, Inc., a provider of hospital based physician management services.

Dr. Feliciano earned his medical degree from Ponce School of Medicine in Puerto Rico. He completed his internship at Ponce University Hospital and his residency at Long Island Jewish Medical Center where he also served as Chief Resident.

He currently serves as the Chairman of the Emergency Department Committee and Medical Director at Bethesda Memorial Hospital. He also serves on Bethesda's Medical Executive Committee, Critical Care Event Committee, Chest Pain Committee and the Pneumonia Committee. He is currently a Major in the US Army Reserve based in Landstuhl, Germany.

Dr. Feliciano is a Fellow of the American College of Emergency Physicians (FACEP). He is a member of the State Medical Society of Florida, Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Society, American Medical Association and the Emergency Medicine Residency Association.

Dr. Feliciano speaks fluent Spanish and his personal interests include administration and academics. He resides in South Florida with his wife, Wanda Munoz-Feliciano, M.D., and their three children.

