

The Southbury Women's Club is seeking local artisans, craftsmen, local farmers, and food producers to participate in "CT Arts & Eats - A Day of Artisan Wares and Fares," taking place Saturday, August 27, 2022 from 10 - 4 at Southbury Town Hall, located at 501 Main Street South in the heart of Southbury, Connecticut.

CT Arts & Eats was a huge success in 2021 in its new location at Southbury Town Hall. We received fabulous positive feedback from our vendors and patrons who attended. Located directly on Main Street South in Southbury, the Town Hall has a beautiful open lawn and paved areas to accommodate the food trucks, musical entertainment, and artisan tables. We are so proud to again be hosting this great event to connect the residents of Southbury and surrounding towns with talented local artisans. The net proceeds from this event will benefit many local charities in our community.

Parking will be available for our patrons via adjoining parking lots at the Town Hall, Southbury Senior Center/Parks & Recreation Center, and Pomperaug Elementary School.

CT Arts & Eats features a diverse set of vendors, food trucks, and a beautiful location that allows for an optimal layout for both vendors and patrons. We strive to draw in as many patrons as possible with extensive print and social media advertising, and approximately 2,000 people walked through the event in 2021.

Please fill out the attached Application, then read and sign the associated Rules and Regulations. We hope to have the opportunity to consider your application for participation.

If you have any questions, please email us at CTArtsEats@gmail.com, visit our Facebook page at "CT Arts & Eats," or visit <https://southburywomensclub.org/ct-arts-eats>.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Upon receipt of such notice from SWC, the applicant will become an exhibitor at the event.

Cancellation Policy: In the event an applicant has been accepted as an exhibitor in the event but then wishes to cancel, the following will apply: Cancellation must be expressed in writing or via email.
