

Since 2015, the South-Jersey based band 99 Reasons has showcased its unique style of cover music at numerous venues, events, casinos and festivals throughout the tri-state area, while demonstrating a strong interest in community work. Featuring two dynamic vocalists, 99 Reasons plays a wide variety of dance and party music. The members of the group were influenced by the artists of their youth, 1980's classic rock and pop, 90's dance music, and country. Something for everyone!

COMMUNITY

In the early 2010s, 99 Reasons hosted the first "Atco Battles Alzheimer's" fundraiser. Held at a small club and featuring 3 cover bands, the event was attended by approximately 60 people. Since then, the event has grown to become one of the largest one-day fundraisers for Alzheimer's in the Delaware Valley. Over the past 10 years, more than 6,000 people have attended various events, and more than $150,000 has been raised for the cause.
