

With over two decades of experience in the field of education, Brent Mitchell is dedicated to guiding educators toward academic success and personal growth.

As an accomplished educational consultant, he believes that every educator has the potential to excel, and my mission is to provide tailored guidance that unlocks their full capabilities.

Brent is a native of Little Rock, Arkansas, and comes from a family of educators. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff in the field of Elementary Education where he developed a deep understanding of educational psychology, curriculum development, and learning strategies.

His passion for helping leaders navigate their educational paths led him to pursue a career as an educational consultant. He also holds a dual Master's Degree from Harding University with an emphasis in Teaching and Educational Leadership. Brent also holds an Educational Specialist degree from the University of Central Arkansas and is working on his Doctoral degree at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock.

In his spare time, Brent enjoys serving the community through his fraternity, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Incorporated, and other civic organizations.

He and his wife ReeVedia have three children and most recently have relocated to the St. Louis area.
