Join us for a trip like no other! La Boca chefs Liz and Steven travel to their favorite part of Ireland, the Golden Vale, a convergence of three counties where the land is fertile and farm-to-table is the norm. We'll explore the food scene & gather ingredients along the way, returning home to Barnahown B&B each night to dine on our finds. Cheese, butter and dairy. Meat, fish and poultry, whiskey, beer and wine. Not to mention the incredible hospitality of this beautiful country. Come see what fun it is to travel with your own chefs!
