Time 6:00pm -7:30pm

Topic: Confidence and Compassion in Prayer

Welcome

Opening Prayer

Scripture text: 1 John 5:14-21

<sup>14</sup> This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. <sup>15</sup> And if we know that he hears us—whatever we ask—we know that we have what we asked of him.

<sup>16</sup> If you see any brother or sister commit a sin that does not lead to death, you should pray and God will give them life. I refer to those whose sin does not lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death. I am not saying that you should pray about that. <sup>17</sup> All wrongdoing is sin, and there is sin that does not lead to death.

<sup>18</sup> We know that anyone born of God does not continue to sin; the One who was born of God keeps them safe, and the evil one cannot harm them. <sup>19</sup> We know that we are children of God, and that the whole world is under the control of the evil one. <sup>20</sup> We know also that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true. And we are in him who is true by being in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

<sup>21</sup> Dear children, keep yourselves from idols.

Things to know:

- John's first letter addresses those in the church as some others have fallen away.
- John's letters were in hopes to stabilize differences in the church regarding doctrine, devotion, and ethics.

John made four purpose statements:

1. He wrote to promote his readers' fellowship and joy.
2. To help readers avoid the pit falls of sin yet find forgiveness when they stumble.
3. To protect readers from false teachers.
4. John wrote to his readers to remind them of their gift of eternal life.

John affirmed the truth of Christ, Love and the importance of a personal relationship with Christ. Truth, faith, proactive ethics, and fervent love for God and people were key.
