UKRAINE WAR | Zelensky says he told EU leaders, US president Putin 'bluffing'

Trump keen to seal truce at Alaska meet: Macron

Kremlin won't relook riders

AP BERLIN

US President Donald Trump was "very clear" in a meeting on Wednesday with European leaders the US wants to achieve a ceasefire at the summit with Russia's Vladimir Putin in Alaska, French President Emmanuel Macron said.

After the virtual meeting between Trump, Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy and European leaders, Macron said Trump was prioritising a ceasefire between Ukraine and Russia.

He added Trump had been clear "territorial issues relating to Ukraine will only be negotiated by the Ukrainian president." Following his meeting on Friday with the Russian leader, Trump will also "seek a future trilateral meeting" — one involving Trump, Putin and Zelenskyy, Macron said. "I think that's a very important point in this regard. And we hope it can be held in Europe, in a neutral country that is acceptable to all parties," Macron said.

German Chancellor Friedrich Merz described the meeting with Zelenskyy and Trump as "constructive".

Speaking alongside Zelenskyy, Merz said after the video-conference that "important decisions" could be made in Anchorage, but emphasised "fundamental European and Ukrainian security interests must be protected".

Merz convened the virtual meetings to ensure EU and Ukraine's leaders are heard ahead of the summit, where Trump and Putin are expected to discuss a path towards ending Moscow's war in Ukraine. Zelenskyy and the EU leaders have been sidelined from that summit.

MOSCOW: Russia said on Wednesday its stance on ending the war in Ukraine has not changed since President Putin set out his conditions last year: the full withdrawal of Kyiv's forces from key Ukrainian regions and the abandonment of its Nato ambitions. Russian Foreign Ministry's deputy spokesperson Alexei Fadeev made the point clear hours after Putin held a phone call with North Korean leader Kim Jong Un and updated him on planned talks with US President Trump in Alaska on Friday. While Kim and Putin confirmed "their will to strengthen cooperation in the future", the Russian leader expressed appreciation for North Korea's help in "liberating" the Kursk region in western Russia.

UK cops to reveal ethnicity and nationality of suspects

FIGHTING MISINFO

London: New official guidance issued on Wednesday will require police forces across the UK to reveal the ethnicity and nationality of suspects charged with a crime as part of a drive to counter misinformation spread through online channels.

The National Police Chiefs' Council and the College of Policing said they have developed the update especially for high-profile and sensitive investigations and operations, with officers "encouraged" to disclose the additional information when there is a "policing purpose to do so".

The purpose highlighted by the law enforcement bodies includes reducing the risk to public safety where there are "high levels of mis or disinformation about a particular incident, or in cases of significant public interest".

"We have to make sure our processes are fit for purpose in an age of social media speculation and where information can travel incredibly quickly across a wide range of channels," said NPCC Deputy Chief Constable Sam de Reya.

COPS GET 'LIVE FACIAL RECOGNITION' VANS

A greater number of Live Facial Recognition vans will begin circulating in the UK to locate suspects of serious crimes. "No one should feel unsafe leaving their homes. From today, every neighbourhood in England and Wales has named, officers to tackle crime in our communities," said PM Keir Starmer.

Hire a new economist: Don to Goldman Sachs

... after bank says consumers will have to bear bulk of tariff burden

Washington: Days after Goldman Sachs' top economists published research claiming price increases stemming from higher tariffs are poised to soon be borne mostly by consumers, US President Donald Trump is urging the bank's CEO David Solomon to get a new economist, CNN reports.

"Tariffs have not caused inflation, or any other problems for America, other than massive amounts of cash pouring into our treasury's coffers," Trump wrote in a Truth Social post. "David Solomon and Goldman Sachs refuse to give credit where credit is due." "David should go out and get himself a new economist or, maybe, he ought to just focus on being a DJ, and not bother running a major financial institution," Trump added. Solomon previously performed regularly at

US debt at record $37tn

Washington: US national debt reached record $37 trillion. The national debt eclipsed this new milestone years sooner than pre-pandemic projections. The Congressional Budget Office's Jan 2020 projections predicted the US reaching the milestone after fiscal year 2030. But the debt grew faster than expected as the Covid pandemic shut down much of the economy and the Trump and Biden administrations borrowed heavily to stabilise the economy.

high-profile events. However, facing pressure from the bank's board, he gave up his DJing side gig two years ago.
