By The Associated Press.
BOSTON, April 19.—Spurred on by the need of employment instead of glory, Ellison (Tarzan) Brown, swarthy Narragansett Indian from Alton, R. I., today ran the fastest marathon in history to gain his second victory in the last four Boston A. A. races from Hopkinton to this city.
Brown, a stone mason and out of work since he competed in the Olympics after winning the 1936 race, plodded the 26 miles 385 yards, mostly through a driving rain, in 2 hours 28 minutes and 51.8 seconds. He finished more than a quarter mile ahead of the closest of his 178 rivals, Don Heinicke of Baltimore, a dark horse who had run in but five previous marathons elsewhere.
The Indian was 2 minutes 9.8 seconds faster than the course's six-year-old record and 27.4 seconds better than the time made by Kitei Son, the Japanese Olympic champion, when he became the first runner in the world to break two and one-half hours for such an endurance race.

Pack Bunched for 2 Miles
Heinicke, who settled down in ninth place when the bulky pack broke up after the first two miles, finished in 2:31:24.6, about a quarter-mile ahead of Walter Young, who was rewarded with a police appointment in Verdun, Que., after he won this event two years ago. Young's time was 2:32:41.8.
Pat Dengis of Baltimore and Leslie Pawson of Pawtucket, R. I., the pre-race favorites, crossed the line in fourth and fifth positions, in 2:33:22.6 and 2:33:57.6, respectively. The latter set the course record in 1933 and won last year to become one of the four "repeaters" in the event.

The next five finishers and their times were Paul Donato of Roxbury, 2:34:25.2; Walter Hornby of Hamilton, Ont., 2:37:11; Gerard Cote of Verdun, Que., 2:37:43; Fred Bristow of Toronto, Ont., 2:38:44, and André Brunelle of North Medford, 2:39:09.

Johnny Kelley Thirteenth
Johnny Kelley of Arlington, the 1935 leader, was thirteenth and the seven times successful Clarence DeMar was far back in thirtieth place.
"I hope this win will enable me to get a job, as it did Young two years ago," Brown exclaimed after receiving medical attention that was unneeded, for he lost only two of his 133 pounds during the race.
The laurel wreath with which George DeMeter of Boston crowns Boston marathon winners was stolen from Brown shortly after it had been placed on his brow, it was learned tonight. DeMeter offered $100 reward for its return. It also was learned that Brown was denied admission to the race until a friend had paid his $1 entry fee.
