Blood Draw

Country • G major • 120 BPM

[Verse 1]

Sunrise breaks, I tie my shoes
Grab my kit, no time to lose
Faces waiting, some scared, some strong
In this room, where we all belong

[Chorus]

It's just a little prick, then the world flows through
Stories in the veins, every shade and hue
I hold steady hands and calm the fear
Blood draw, but I'm the one who's here

[Verse 2]

Old man's joke, a little smile
Young girl's tears that won't stay for a while Telling tales that only eyes can see
In every drop, a mystery

[Chorus]

It's just a little prick, then the world flows through
Stories in the veins, every shade and hue
I hold steady hands and calm the fear
Blood draw, but I'm the one who's here

[Bridge]

Behind the scenes, I play my part
A quiet hero with a gentle heart
In every tube, a life's own song
I keep the beat, I keep it strong

Sunset calls, I pack away
Tomorrow's stories start again someday
