

Restless Heart

[Intro]

(Guitar riff)

[Verse 1]

Out on the back road, where the wild winds blow,

Dust on my boots, and a long way to go.

Sun's sinking low, in that amber sky,

Got a restless heart, and a fire in my eye.

[Chorus]

I'm rolling on, like a midnight train,

Through the pouring rain, and the heartache pain.

In this country rock, I find my home,

A place to wander, but never alone.

[Verse 2]

Old friends and stories, around the firelight,

Guitars strumming soft, under the stars so bright.

Every mile I travel, every song I sing,

Keeps me moving forward, on this endless string.

[Chorus]

I'm rolling on, like a midnight train,

Through the pouring rain, and the heartache pain.

In this country rock, I find my home,

A place to wander, but never alone.

[Bridge]

And when the night gets colder,

And the road seems long,

I'll lean into the thunder,

With this heart and song.

[Chorus]

I'm rolling on, like a midnight train,

Through the pouring rain, and the heartache pain.

In this country rock, I find my home,

A place to wander, but never alone.

[Outro]

(Guitar riff fading)

Rolling on, yeah, rolling on...
