

NMAMSS Education Conference Session Objectives

27th Annual Education Conference

August 1st, 2025

All Together now! Bringing Credentialing, Privileging and Delegation into a Single Work Flow

Objectives:

At the end of this session, the participant will be able to:

- Learn the difference between Credentialing, Privileging and Delegation
- Identify likenesses and differences in accrediting requirements
- Discuss various ways to incorporate delegation into a credentialing/privileging process

TJC Medical Staff Updates You Need to Know

Objectives:

At the end of this session, the participant will be able to:

- Review the top scored Medical Staff Standards in 2024
- Explain the Medical Staff Scoring trends
- Examine “Frequently Asked Questions” and other Joint Commission Standards applicable to the Medical Staff
- Review the 2024 National Data Review and Updates for 2025

Understanding Payer Enrollment: Revenue Cycle Impact, Payers and How to Avoid Delays

Objectives:

At the end of this session, the participant will be able to:

- Define payer enrollment and revenue cycle.
- Discuss payer enrollment’s impact on revenue cycle.
- Review process for enrollment with government and commercial payers.
- Discuss most common reasons for delays in payer enrollment and steps to take to avoid delays.

Navigating and Preventing Burnout for Physicians Health and Well Being

Objectives:

At the end of this session, the participant will be able to:

- Overview of physician wellness- Describe the current state of physician wellness and the key contributors to burnout
- Identify organizational changes that support a wellness-focused environment
- Apply practical tools and strategies to help prevent burnout among physicians and medical staff

Advanced Practice Providers – Exploring the Similarities and Differences

Objectives:

At the end of this session, the participant will be able to:

- Attendees will learn the specialized differences between Nurse Practitioners and Physician Assistants
- Discuss the education requirements, skills, scope of practice and work environment of a Nurse practitioner and a Physician assistant
- At the end of the session participants will learn and understand the key differences between the Nurse Practitioner and Physician Assistant

Working Together - Medical Staff Leadership and the Medical Service Professional

Objectives:

At the end of this session, the participant will be able to:

- Develop leadership competencies in medical staff providers to enhance their effectiveness within the organized medical staff structures
- Understand the role of Medical Service Professional in supporting and leading physicians through processes such as credentialing, privileging and peer review
- Establish and communicate clear expectations for the Medical Executive Committee (MEC) aligning its function with the organizational goals and medical staff bylaws

Mock Fair Hearing: What to Expect

Objectives:

At the end of this session, the participant will be able to:

- State the rationale for holding fair hearings
- Identify the roles of the MSP's, Medical Staff Leaders and legal counsel in hearings
- State the difference between direct examination and Cross examination