Welcome to the 2023 NMAMSS Annual Conference

8:10 am to 9:10 am

Pivotal Conversations - Get Comfortable with the Uncomfortable

Briana Foulkrod, CPCS, CPMSM

Description:

Do you know what you want to say, but have trouble putting the words together? Do you deal with colleagues, people, and peers that can be... less than easy? Do you find yourself thinking of everything you should have said (or not said) after the conversation has already happened? Mastering the art of improving dialogue, better alignment, and a culture of clarity is much easier said than done. In this session, participants will learn tips and tricks for honing skills to improve the way we communicate!

9:10 am to 10:10 am

2020-2022: Years we learned things we never wanted to learn

Erin L Mullenberg, JD, CPMSM, CPCS

Description:

The "Covid Years" brought us disaster credentialing, challenges to staffing, burnout, and many other things. This session, with humor and compassion, will review some of the lessons, including multi-tasking, virtual meeting management, imposters, and empathy for ourselves and our providers.

10:10 am-10:25 am

10:25 am- 11:25 am

Suspension of Privileges: A Valuable Pause Button

Sara Cameron, CPCSM, CPMS Director of Professional Services

Description: Of all the challenges facing medical executive committee members, some of the most difficult may involve the timely management of a provider suspected of having competence or conduct issues. Suspension of clinical privileges limits privileges prior to completion of a professional review action but does not mandate any disciplinary action. We will discuss the process of suspension as well as other approaches that may be used to address concerns with a provider's care.
