THE FIVE LAWS OF GOLD

1. GOLD cometh gladly and in increasing quantity to any man who will put not less than one tenth of his earnings to create an estate for his future and that of his family.
2. GOLD laboreth dilligently and contentedly for the wise owner who finds for it profitable employment, multiplying even as the flocks of the field.
3. GOLD ~~flingeth~~ clingeth to the protection of the conscious owner who invests under the advice of men wise in its handle.
4. Gold slippeth away from the man who invests it in business or purpose with which he is not familiar or which are not approved by those skilled in its keep.
5. GOLD flees the man who would force it to impossible earnings or who followeth the alluring advice of tricksters and schemers ~~or who trusts it to his own inexperience and romantic desires in investment.~~
