HAPPY NEW YEAR

The Eagles is trying something different this year. They would like some ideas for different dinner menus. They would like to have volunteers to help design, maybe cook the dinner and volunteers to clean up. These dinners have to be cost efficient so the members do not have to pay an EXORBITANT cost for their dinner but can have a wonderful meal. You must have a food handlers license to work in the kitchen. The web site is <https://srhd.org/cards-permits-inspections/food-worker-card> or if you need help getting the card please call the office between 8 & 12 or you can leave a message or contact Dwaine Gaulke, Trustee with ideas We have Jeanie Kyle doing dinner on January 6th which is a gluten free chicken dinner, Eagle Riders doing dinner on the 13th chicken enchiladas or Quesada's and breakfast on January 15th, Val and Dwaine on the 20th doing a pork tenderloin with a Guinness glaze and mac and cheese and on the 27th is turf and surg. What would you like to see on the menu so you can have variety. Remember your Eagles can put ideas out there but it is up to your officers and members to help

Thank you,
Your Eagles

Dessert sales every Friday, some Mondays and Trivia to benefit the Aerie and charities. Come and enjoy a wonderful dessert and help out your club and the charities that it helps.

Make plans now for the Sweetheart ball on February 10th. Wonderful food and great music. More information in the February newsletter. Hope to see you there.

January 13th bottle raffle to benefit the Aerie.

Aerie Worthy President's Letter

Well, another Christmas has gone by. Hope your New Year was cheery and not too much of the bubbles. Anyways we want see this new year safe and sound. There's still Gonzaga basketball games, both men and women. All to seen on our tv's. Come in and enjoy with all your friends. Even the Cougars. If you love sports, ,the Eagles is your place of enjoyment. Remember Martin Luther King's birthday on Jan. 16th. But when you go outside, please be careful of the snow and ice. Always during the winter months be careful. We have Bingo's on Mondays, Athletic supporters meeting every Thursday, line dancing classes every Monday morning and Wednesday evening, pinocle the 2nd and 4th Tuesday mornings of the month, cribbage and hand and foot on Sundays and much more. Come in to support your Eagles. Be safe.
Frank Poteat, Aerie President
