/// BIO

One of the hardest working women in the music business, Amanda Pruitt, is on the rise by doing things the old fashion way. With five records and two EPs under her belt, Amanda is also a creative storyteller and a living gypsy with a sound of Americana, Classic & Traditional Country, Rock & Roll, Blues, and even some Southern Gospel.

Amanda has released five full projects, (Let It Go, Read Between the Lines, Something Will Give and Needle in a Groove) and the gospel album, (Not Turning Back); an EP- (Strong) and the Gospel EP - (Break Me). Amanda is in the process of releasing new music this year. She is currently booking for the Louisiana, Florida, Alabama coast, Texas, Oklahoma and Midwest. Pruitt is the diverse singer songwriter to have at your venues and events.

Graduate of Texas A&M with a BS in Journalism and a minor in Performing Arts. Music is not her only asset, her determination, strength and God-fearing spirit are propelling her to stardom.

Amanda is the founder and President of Annie Mae Ministries - Prison & Songwriting Ministry.

/// EXPERIENCE

Amanda is an Independent National Touring Artist who has performed on many stages across the country, but her favorites are small town fairs and festivals, the Blue Bird Cafe and the White Elephant. Amanda is affiliated with Frank Brown International Songwriters Festival, TexChromosome Women, Who's Who Women of Louisiana, Tennessee Songwriters, and many music circuits in New Orleans, Nashville, Dallas, and Kansas City.
