

MAMA TREE

Hi friends 🙌

Our first Fall workshop left us energized and glowing! We used walnut husks from MAMA TREE and toyon foraged from on-site to dye beautiful silk scarves. We can't wait for the next dye workshop at the end of the month!

Intro to Permaculture (10/12)

Join us for our half-day Intro to Permaculture Workshop at our farm in Upper Ojai. Led by MAMA TREE's own Jeffrey & Abudu, we will dive into permaculture & agroecology, with a hands-on practicum that explores our regenerative farm systems. Register below!

As a precursor to the workshop, we are hosting an online lecture on Wednesday, October 9th 2024 at 6pm PDT. This zoom lecture will give necessary background information to all permaculture workshop participants and is also open to everyone. Jeffrey and Abudu will cover a general overview of permaculture design so we can make the most of our time together on the 12th. We hope to see you there.

GOATOBER (10/12)

After our workshop on Saturday the 12th, we will be heading across the street to Besant Hill School to enjoy lunch at the 2nd Annual Goatober Event. Our participants will receive food truck vouchers for a vegetarian or locally-grazed, lamb sandwich.

Join Mama Tree as we gather with community and the Ojai Valley Fire Safe Council to celebrate grazing at Goatober on October 12th from 12pm to 3pm. MAMATREE will be selling our delicious products and sharing about how our goats' grazing practices directly impact the health of our orchard (and food).

This is a FREE event and a labor of love to recognize all the forward-thinking and action-taking community members working towards soil and community health in Ojai. We hope to see you there.

INDIGO DYE

NATURAL DYE WORKSHOP

hosted by Allie @rootedbotanics

using locally foraged Indigo and Ojai Pixie rinds from MAMA TREE

Learn how to make an indigo vat from pixie rinds as well as a traditional iron vat which we will be using to dye your chosen piece of clothing.

Natural dyes work best on natural fibers, such as cotton, linen, silk, or hemp.
