Farm Tour Feedback

"Book learning is great, but when it comes to learning about comprehensive multi-input systems like regenerative farming, nothing beats seeing it in action.

Farm tours at places like Mama Tree are a blessing and a valuable opportunity, so clear your calendar and catch one!"

Volunteer Days

Once you've come to a farm tour and been oriented to this land, the opportunity is open to get your hands in the soil with us on Sundays. Often we are clearing weeds under the canopy of the trees to feed to our goats, or collecting snails off our pixie trees to feed to the ducks.

While here enjoy:

- 🌱 asking our team questions about regenerative practices
- 🗣️ inspiring and fruitful conversations
- 🐐🐕🐴 petting the goats, our farm dog Zeus, and donkeys
- 🦆🐔 saying hi to the ducks and chickens
- 🐈 exploring with our farm cat Muji

Grapefruits and Pomelo Harvest

Our star ruby grapefruits and pomelos are organic, fresh from harvest, and juicy as ever! Visit us at the 3-7pm Thursday and 9am - 1pm Sunday Ojai community farmers markets to get yours while they are on sale.

P.S. here's a secret tip for choosing your grapefruits: select them by weight; the grapefruits that feel heavier than they look are the juiciest.

Did you know that Pomelo's and Grapefruits are cousins? Follow us @mamatreerojai to learn more and receive updates 🐼

Other News

Still open through August 4th:

Ojai Valley Museum's Exhibit, Does Agriculture Have a Future in the Ojai Valley?

Entry is only $5. Do not miss this thoughtful exhibit!

An informative display of soil samples from all the farms featured at Ojai Valley Museum's current exhibit. When you see it in person, let us know: which soils look the most alive to you?
