

MAMA TREE

You Asked and We Listened

Hello friends of Mama Tree,

This next Farm Tour is finally on a Sunday. This Sunday, May 26th. And in case May stays gray, we want to encourage you to stay in bed a half hour longer -- we're not getting started until 9:30am.

Space is limited. Sign ups close SATURDAY NIGHT or when the tour is full.

Educational Farm Tour

"Taking the Mama Tree tour was sparked by curiosity, yet ended up fulfilling so much more than that. The property is so full of life and has such a fluid layout; with every detail requiring much thought and intention - which was very inspiring. The staff is so clearly devoted to the operation as a whole and I loved hearing their stories about creative problem solving with nature. I intend to return and bring more people." -- Meike

Volunteer Days

Once you've come to a farm tour and been oriented to this land, the opportunity is open to you to join us on Sundays to get your hands in the soil. Often we are clearing weeds under the canopy of the trees and tossing it to our animals for their lunch. Yes, you can jump in and pet the goats while you're here. The conversations are always inspiring and fruitful.

Other News

We were featured in the new Ojai Valley Museum Exhibit: Does Agriculture Have a Future in the Ojai Valley? Check it out. It runs through August.

A thoughtful display of soil samples from all the farms featured at Ojai Valley Museum's current exhibit.

And as always, we depend on word-of-mouth and appreciate you forwarding this email to anyone you think may be interested in regenerative farm tours, or simply in reading stories from a regenerative farm.
