

MAMA TREE

Hi friends of Mama Tree,

We're collectively exhaling after a record-setting September heatwave. It prepared us mentally to say goodbye to summer and welcome the Autumn Equinox. There's a lot for us to look forward to on the farm this fall: fall tree plantings; the much-awaited return of our Animal Systems Supervisor, Logan; a new chapter for Madeline as she stewards our Farm Pod; and a whole slew of new collaborations and exciting workshops on the horizon.

The Story of Our Name

Before reading about our upcoming programming, make sure to catch our reel below to hear the story behind the name Mama Tree.

MAMA TREE

We love our trees and we like to think they love us back.

Join Us for a Workshop

Our first two workshops of the season are almost here! We would love to host you on the farm for mornings of hands-on learning fun.

Natural Dye Workshop - Walnut & Toyon

We're a week away from our Natural Dye - Walnut & Toyon workshop with Ojai's own Allie of Rooted Botanics. Together we'll be using Mama Tree's walnut husks and locally foraged toyon to dye silk bandanas.

Farm Tour October 6th

With all the new workshops on our calendar, we only have one farm tour scheduled right now. If you've been meaning to join us or urge your friends to check us out, your chance is on Sunday, October 6th at 2:30pm. Come see our Mama Walnut tree in person and meet our team of knowledgeable and passionate land stewards. Registration is open now.

Heirloom Seed Expo 2024 Recap

Did you catch the informative and inspiring talks by our farm stewards, Jeffrey & Abudu, at the Heirloom Seed Expo? We had a great time at the Expo, meeting people at our booth and making many new connections with folks who share our passion for growing organic food. Watch our reel below for a sneak peak into the Expo.
