

Carrying the RE/MAX name holds credibility... the "Advisors" name brings pride!

By Debbie Matic, who joined Advisors in September 2019

I joined RE/MAX Advisors because I like the feel of a tight knit, supportive group. Our weekly meetings are always informative and great for problem solving in a creative and relaxed group setting. For me, checking in weekly ignites my spirit. Accountability fuels my success.

Being a newer agent comes along with many challenges. Our Broker, Maria, makes sure we have the tools for success. She leads by example. Whether it's learning at a meeting, one-on-one instruction or a random question, she is always there for her agents. Working at RE/MAX Advisors, I feel I am more assertive and competent. It's wonderfully validating when that feeling is reinforced by my clients' trust and positive feedback. That would not be possible without the training we all receive here at RE/MAX Advisors.

What I like best about RE/MAX Advisors are the community events that Maria McGuire organizes for all of us agents to host our clients. It's important to give back and enforces my belief of investing in our clients beyond the transaction. It makes me a better agent and a better person!
