Welcome to The Wedding Cafe!

Our service was founded while sipping on endless amount of coffees at our favourite cafe's. This is where we realised that there are also many bride to- be's sitting, hoping and dreaming for their perfect wedding day to come true.

We are a small family business, dreamed up by a mother and daughter who love creating, making and planning on all things weddings and events, the passion and thrill we get when we do any event is as if it were our very own!

We love this industry, and we love meeting new people, this is why we are here to provide you with absolutely any help you need to make your wedding or event dream come true. Even for those DIY brides, we love those who want to be involved in every aspect of the wedding, and we would never take that away from you, but we're just here to make it all a lot more enjoyable, fuss and stress free.

Many brides don't know the difference between the two roles, here we offer both services but depending on your needs we can be as flexible as possible.

A wedding planner will help organise, collate and run your wedding planning to be as smooth as a creamy latte. You will be able to entrust her to find suppliers, collect quotes, organise your RSVP's, and on the day of the wedding you will not have to worry about anything, without putting pressure on any of your family members, she will do it all.

A wedding stylist is concerned about the design and aesthetics of your wedding, from creating a mood board to arranging with the florist the perfect flowers for your theme, every little detail goes unmissed in order to create your wedding of your dreams!
