SESSION DESCRIPTION

Please join us on February 19, 2021 from 9 AM to 12 PM PT for Supporting Families of Color In The NICU: Lactation and More a half day live webinar featuring Jessica Wade and Ebony Harvey. This webinar will focus on what families of color go through when they have their child in the NICU and how to best support them in their lactation journey.

OBJECTIVES

- Outline the basic structure of the NICU by learning about the several components that comprise it
- Identify 3 different strategies to improve breastfeeding rates in the NICU for people of color
- Prepare to provide culturally compliant support to families (parents and baby) who have recently exited the NICU
- Differentiate between the distinguishing factors of providing support for a non-NICU family and NICU family
- Recognize implicit biases that influence the manner that information and care is delivered to different communities
- Discuss the importance of taking substantial time to educate patients on the benefits of donated breast milk for NICU babies and list 2 key pieces of information that parents should be informed of
- Correlate how extreme stress caused by the NICU can cause lactating parents difficulties with milk letdown, negatively impacting their milk supply
- Outline an improved delivery process for donor milk consent forms, including properly educating parents about donor milk.
