Already know a few chords? Let's take your guitar skills to the next level! In this fun, family-friendly 6-week class, you'll learn to play your favorite songs, learn more chords and move forward with guitar techniques.

Registration is required and limited to 10 kids ages 10-18. One name per registration, please. Participants should register for the first "Level 2" session on September 13 and are encouraged to attend all 6 sessions.

Need to borrow a guitar? We've got you covered! Please email Kears at ksehr@scgov.net ahead of time to reserve one. A parent or guardian must attend the first session to provide ID and complete a permission slip for guitar loans. Parents and mentors are welcome to stick around and jam with us!

Meet your new instructor, Paul Quinn:

Paul comes from a musical family and plays in a local band. He loves teaching people how to play guitar and have fun making music.

This program is provided through a partnership with Englewood Creative Arts. Join us and let's make music and memories together!
