Biography

Dr. Sarah Elizabeth Korneisel Jaegers is a solo, chamber, and orchestral clarinetist and clarinet teacher based in the San Francisco Bay Area in California. She is currently a faculty member at Amabile School of Music in Moraga and Notes Music Academy in Oakland. She performs as a member of the Rhode Island Recording Ensemble and the DesertLake Duo. She also performed regularly with the Walla Walla Symphony Orchestra (Walla Walla, WA), the Mid-Columbia Symphony Orchestra (Richland, WA), and the Tri-Cities Big Band (Kennewick, WA). Since 2017, she has commissioned three new works for clarinet by composer Zachary Friedland. An international performer since 2011, Dr. Jaegers has toured in countries throughout Europe. She regularly performs at international conferences, such as the International Clarinet Association's ClarinetFest. Dr. Jaegers has a strong interest in world music, expansion of the clarinet repertoire, and diversification of the canon, particularly through the promotion of works by Turkish composers. She holds a DMA degree from The Ohio State University, a Master of Music degree from Michigan State University, and Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Arts degrees from Iowa State University. Her teachers include Dr. Caroline Hartig, Dr. Guy Yehuda, Dr. Gregory Oakes, Nicola Bulfone, Eddy Vanoosthuyse, Dr. Robert Spring, and Dr. Deborah Bish. Dr. Jaegers has performed in masterclasses for many distinguished clarinetists, including Daniel Ottensamer, Elsa Ludewig-Verdehr, Håkan Rosengren, and Walter Seyfarth.
