

What We Do

Maxicorp provides end-to-end advisory services across the retail and commercial real estate lifecycle:

Strategic Site Identification

Location advisory and market feasibility analysis to identify optimal positions for your business

Retail Expansion Planning

Comprehensive market entry strategies and expansion planning tailored to your brand

Commercial Leasing

Deal structuring and negotiation to secure terms that align with your objectives

Partnership Facilitation

Connecting landlords, developers, and brands to create mutually beneficial opportunities

By leveraging deep local insights and a collaborative approach, we help brands identify locations that not only meet operational requirements but also strengthen market presence and growth trajectory. The right location is the foundation of every successful retail business.
