

Mrs. Doris Gameiro, NCTM (Nationally Certified Teacher of Music) was born in Katy, Texas. Her family moved to Wichita Falls Texas where her parents enrolled her in piano lessons around 6 years old. In her younger years she won various local school competitions at local and state levels. Mrs. Gameiro also played French Horn in band while in grade school through her first two years at TCU. She also won various competitions for French Horn including making it to All District and All Region Bands 2 years in a row.

Mrs. Gameiro studied piano under the tutelage of Dr. Ruth Morrow towards the more serious years of study in high school. She went on to study at Texas Christian University under the tutelage of Dr. Judith Solomon and Mr. Harold Martina. She studied piano pedagogy with Dr. Ann Gipson for her undergraduate and graduate degrees. She also received her NCTM (Nationally Certified Teacher of Music) certification from the Music Teacher's National Association during graduate school with the help of Dr. Gipson.

Mrs. Gameiro graduated from TCU with a Bachelor of Arts and a Masters of Music Education in Piano Pedagogy in 2007 and 2009. She was awarded full scholarship and stipend for her graduate degree. In graduate school responsibilities included group piano lessons for children ages 7-9, early childhood music 0-3 years old, beginning college class piano, individual lessons for college students and helping out with the computer lab activities at TCU music prep school.

Mrs. Gameiro NCTM runs an independent trilingual (English, Spanish, and Portuguese) piano studio of over 40 students ages 4+, beginners-advanced in the Southwest Fort Worth, Texas area. Her studio also includes students as far away as North Carolina, and Wichita Falls, Texas. She has successfully moved all her students to distance learning teaching using Skype and Facetime due to the current Covid-19 regulations. She does allow a few students to come to in person lessons while both are masking.

Mrs. Gameiro was also the choir accompanist and organist at St. Elisabeth's and Christ the King Episcopal Church in River Oaks Texas from 2009-2021.

Mrs. Gameiro is also an active wedding musician, having performed at various occasions across the United States and in her native Nicaragua.

She is also an active collaborative pianist with her piano duo partner Jose Cubela with whom she has traveled and performed together at the Conservatório de Música de Águeda in Portugal on June 2018 and June 2019. They have also performed piano trio in 2019, 2022 and 2023 with a third pianist, Svetlana Bakushina in Sao Bras de Alportel and Portimao, Portugal. Doris and Jose have also performed in various locations in the DFW metroplex throughout the year.

Mrs. Gameiro is an active member of the Fort Worth Music Teachers Association, Music Teacher's National Association, a Steinway Educational Partner and a Joytunes Teacher.

Mrs. Gameiro was also a featured artist with the Voyage Dallas Magazine in June 2019. That article can be found here - <http://voyagedallas.com/interview/meet-doris-gameiro-crafty-piano-teacher/>

Mrs. Gameiro has also recently adjudicated piano performance at the Arlington ISD piano fanfare on February 24, 2024.

Mrs. Gameiro also manages, records, photographs and edits all of her social media content from piano lessons and performance to jewelry making, wood burning, and cultural recipes.
