THE WORD ABOUT ROB BENTON

Boston and Key West Based, Rob Benton has spent the last decade as both a solo artist, a member of the duo "Key West Kings" and lead guitarist performing alongside artists as diverse as Nelly, Lee Brice, Lansdowne, Skidrow, Everlast, LFO, New Kids On The Block, J. Geils Band and many more! Rob also made an appearance on NBC's "America's Got Talent" television show, later earning a contract with MGM Grand headlining a yearlong residency at Circus Circus Casino on the Las Vegas strip!

A dynamic performer, Rob Benton's style is extremely unique. By combining percussion, looping, beat boxing, electrified rock and hip hop elements to his solo acoustic playing, Rob fills out his sound like a four-piece band. Whether playing tracks from his own albums, "Dawn Meets Day & Key West King's "Caroline Street" or covering one of the multitude of artists who have influenced him over the years, Rob makes every song his own. Rob was recently signed to Oceans Management Group and is currently on tour! Catch him in a city near you!

THE BEARD & THE BEAT Rob Benton Brings His Inimitable Sound to the Streets of Key West

When musician Rob Benton was a contestant on “America’s Got Talent” in 2008, Baywatch alum David Hasselhoff applauded his skills but dismissed the guitar virtuoso as a street performer. Ten years later, The Hoff’s assessment has turned prophecy. Benton’s sets at Lucy’s, Irish Oak Barrell and Hank’s, routinely devolve into impromptu street parties with locals and tourists alike spilling out of bars and off of porches to hear his distinct sound. “I’m playing on the street for everybody that’s walking by,” he said. “There’s nowhere else I’d rather be.”
