

EHLL – Parent/Spectator Code of Conduct

Spectator Code of Conduct

The following is the Code of Conduct all spectators, including parents, are obligated to follow in EHLL, or at any EHLL activity (such as tournaments or games played in other Little Leagues). Violation of any rule may result in disciplinary action.

Spectators shall not incite or participate in any form of unsportsmanlike conduct in EHLL or at any EHLL activity.

Spectators shall not use abusive or profane language or gestures at any time at any game or other EHLL activity.

Spectators shall not criticize, belittle, antagonize, berate or otherwise incite any players, managers, coaches, adult volunteers, umpires, league officials or other spectators by word of mouth or by gesture.

Spectators shall accept all decisions of the umpires and game officials as being fair and judged to the best of their ability.

Any spectator exhibiting unsportsmanlike conduct, disruptive, profane, rude and/or abusive behavior towards any player, manager, coach, umpire, game official, league official or other spectator shall be subject to removal from the spectator area and the immediate vicinity of the game by a league official. Any spectator who fails to comply with this request in a timely manner, without further argument or delay, may subject the team to which they are affiliated to forfeiture of the game and must be reported to the Board of Directors.

The President or Board of Directors of EHLL shall be empowered to suspend any spectator from attending any EHLL games or other EHLL approved events for engaging in conduct detrimental to the operation and purpose of EHLL. Two or more violations by any spectator in any one season will result in immediate dismissal from EHLL for the remainder of the season and subject that individual to a permanent ban from EHLL at the discretion of the President or Board of Directors of EHLL.
