Glory to you, O Lord

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus, teacher, he said, “What must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “What is written in the law? What do you read there?” And he answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.” Jesus said to him, “You have given the right answer, do this, and you will live.”

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, and who is my neighbor? Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now, by chance, a priest was going down that road. And when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise, A Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, he passed by on the other side.”

“But a Samaritan, while traveling, came near him. And when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day, he took out two denari, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, ‘Take care of him; when I come back, I will repay you, whatever more you spend.’ Now, which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?”

The man said, “The one who showed him mercy.” Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”
