DAYLIGHT SAVINGS

Remember to turn your clocks ahead 1 hour before going to bed on Saturday, March 10th. Daylight Savings Time starts back up at 2:00 am on Sunday Morning.

Are we there yet?

When I was little (ahem, younger), our family used to take a lot of road trips. Me and my sisters would cram in the back of the Ford Tempo with just about every toy we could fit in our little backpacks, all smooshed in, and we'd drive and drive and drive. Like every kid, we bickered half of the way: "Mom, she touched my leg!" "Dad, she's bugging me!," etc. And, like every kid, we asked the question that has been asked of every parent in the history of the world: "Are we there yet?"

Every day, we had a sense of where were going. What city we had motel reservations at, parks we could stop at, museums, etc. (8-year old me was mostly concerned about one thing on vacation: the motel pool. When were we going to get there so we could play in the pool?). Knowing the fun things that we'd be doing, probably made us ask it even more. Are we there yet?

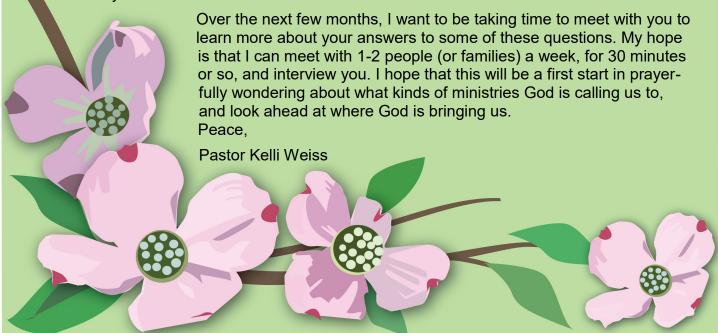

I think most of us are aware of the shifts we've seen in the life of the Church in the United States. Technology is developing at exponential rates, the culture is changing, needs are changing, etc. We're aware that we're in between places, from how church used to be and from what church will look like in the years to come.

There are days when we might just be tempted to just turn around and go back, even though we know that we can't really do that. And there are days when we want to ask over and over and over again, "are we there yet?"

Before we ask that though, I think there's another question we need to ask ourselves: do we know where we're going?

In a life of faith, in some ways the answer will always be "no." That a life of trusting God means taking steps out into an unknown future, trusting that God's going to be here. But, in the midst of that, we're called to be discerning together. We are invited to share wisdom, share passion, ideas, hopes, and our imaginations for our community of faith.

Now that I've been your pastor for over a year, it's time to start wondering where Bethel is headed next. What hopes do we have? What are we passionate about in this congregation? What gifts do we have? What do we always wish we could do together, but have been too nervous to try?

Plan ahead, Holy Week Worship Services

Here is the Holy Week schedule so you can mark your calendars. Please invite friends and family to join with us in worship.

There are four different services this week, all with different and important parts of Jesus' story (and our story) - leading us to the celebration of Easter. Please consider attending all of the services, as each reveal the depth of the promise that God gives to us in Jesus' resurrection from the dead.

Palm/ Passion Sunday - Service time on Sunday, March 25th at 8:30 am.

Maundy Thursday - Worship/Dinner Service (dinner part of the service) on Thursday, March 29th at 5:00 pm.

Good Friday - Service time on Friday, March 30th at 5:00 pm.

Easter Sunday - Celebrate together our God's triumph over sin and death, Jesus' resurrection from the dead! God has taken on death and created life for all. Easter Festival Celebration is on Sunday, April 1st, at 8:30 am.

Souper Bowl - Big Win- 271 vs 260. Bethel took on the Souper Bowl challenge and collected 271 cans of soup beating last year's total of 257. The soup has been given to the Muskego Food Pantry. Thank you Dan Connor for delivering the soup. With every one's generous donations, the soup will be given to people in the community who are in need of food. Thank you again for donating soup and supporting this ministry. Many Blessings! Jean Paape.

A tisket a tasket... Let's fill some Easter baskets.

Bethel Members will once again fill Easter baskets for the Muskego Food Pantry. Council Update & Message

Many blessings to all,

We are in the midst of the Lenten season. Have you added a special challenge to your routine to prepare for Easter, the greatest sacrifice Christ made for us?

Have you noticed the jar on the table in the gathering space? The Faith Family and Fun kids are focusing on collecting coins for ELCA World Hunger, specifically in the agricultural area. Everyone made their own small jar to take home and add coins to. Their money will go to purchase fruit and vegetable seedlings, and farming tools for people as far away as Nicaragua. Join with our children this Lenten season in the hope of providing increased harvests and promoting healthy families all around the world.

Lenten challenge: Attend Wednesday night worship service; listen to our teens share the word. Read the Lenten Devotions from 'Outreach for Hope'. I browsed ahead; check out 'Hope Echoes' for Holy Saturday. We are a people of HOPE.

I will always put my hope in you; I will praise you more and more. Psalm 71:14

Coming up in the beginning of March we will again have a movie night. I have added an extra component! So, come early if you can and make a quick "monster" craft and enjoy the movie complete with popcorn! Friday, March 9th, movie starts at 6:30pm.

We currently have over $2000 in the stew pot fund. This is the second year we are able to add an extra $500 to the February Noisy can for the Madison Street site St Vincent DePaul meal program. They are in need of new food trays and we are looking to make this happen. Thank you all for your generosity!

Lenten Challenge: Help serve Tuesday, March 13th at the meal site. Carpooling leaves at 4:30pm.

The council minutes are posted in the hall on the bulletin board for your review. Let any council member know if you have any input, issues, or ideas for our church. Your concerns are our concerns.

Peace, Debbie Zortman, Council President

This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it. Psalm 118:24
