

Mirtha's Love Volunteer Award 2024 Nomination Form

Volunteers are the heart and soul of Regina and Area Sexual Assault Centre. Our 24/7 Sexual Assault Crisis Line is a volunteer-driven service for the community, answering an average of 200 calls for support every year. We know that without dedicated and kind-hearted people investing their time, talents, skills, and heart into their community, we would simply not be able to do what we do for survivors of sexualized violence.

For 41 years, Regina's own Mirtha Rivera, activist, community leader, and steadfast volunteer, was one of these volunteers. To honour her incredible commitment while uplifting and celebrating volunteerism in our community, we've established the Mirtha's Love Volunteer Award. This annual recognition honours 1 individual in Regina, Moose Jaw, or the surrounding area who is making a significant contribution as a volunteer, especially in the areas of social justice, gender equity, and violence prevention work.

The award is open for nominations from the public, and the recipient of the award will be provided with a $500 honorarium to recognize and thank them for their contributions and encourage them to access teachings and training that will help enhance their skills in serving their community. RSAC recognizes that not every individual who volunteers has the capacity to undertake training; therefore, recipients will not be required to invest the funds in education and are not required to report on how they used the funds. They will, however, also be eligible to attend RSAC's "Supporting Survivors of Sexualized Violence" Full Day training (Value of $190)

To nominate someone, please carefully review the eligibility and guidelines below and complete the application. Applications and supporting documents must be emailed to rsac@sasktel.net by August 1, 2024 11:59 PM.

Nominee Eligibility

- Living and volunteering within a 50 km radius of the Regina and Moose Jaw areas
- Active volunteer or recently retired volunteer with a long history in volunteerism in the areas of social justice and equity, and ideally addressing gender-based violence. Examples include volunteers of crisis lines, shelters, victim services, non-profit boards, and grassroots organizations
- Not a staff member or Board of Director of RSAC
- Willing to consent to a Criminal Record Check
- Willing to consent to their name and a short biography being shared on RSAC website and social media (what is shared can be negotiated based on personal or safety reasons)
