

LAW ENFORCEMENT INFORMATION SHEET

INSTRUCTIONS TO PETITIONER-- IMPORTANT! PLEASE READ CAREFULLY!

The Meskwaki Nation Police Department will personally serve your protection order papers on the Respondent. Since the hearing usually cannot be held without locating and giving these papers to the Respondent, it is important that the Police Officer have accurate and detailed information to help locate the Respondent and avoid delay.

You are NOT required to give all the information requested on this information sheet. If you do not give this information, it may be more difficult to locate the Respondent and it could make service more dangerous for the Police Officer and others.

This information is confidential until a temporary order is executed or served on the Respondent. After that, it may be considered public information.

You may call the Meskwaki Nation Police Department or the Sac and Fox Tribal Court Clerk to find out if an Officer found and gave the protection order papers to the Respondent.

Important notice to the Petitioner: Do NOT let the Respondent know that protection order papers are going to be served on him/her. This advance notice could make service of the papers more difficult and dangerous for the Police Department.

Instructions to Court Clerk.

This information should not be kept in your office -- forward to law enforcement.
