- Explanation of budget sources: Activities budget (Ms. Novia runs this budget), District budget (We use the funds to buy the rights to plays) and booster budget (we raise money to support the students).
- NYC trip-There are about 20 people interested so far, this includes the chaperones.
- The calendar fundraiser has raised $3,600 so far and we get a 80/20 split of the profits.

III. Vice President's Report-Danielle Hooks

- Danielle reported that we have raised $10,050 in sponsorship money so far. We are still waiting for about 25 student families to contribute.

IV. Treasurer's Report-not present

V. Financial Secretary-Anna Patrick is continuing to work on the Square and all is working accordingly.

VI. Publicity Report-Scott Masters-Scott is continuing to update the website as needed. He will add all the volunteer information and links after the parent meeting. He will also work on getting posters out to advertise our shows.

VII. Teacher Report-Ms. Novia

- The workshops are going well.
- The musical auditions will be held on the 6th and 7th.
- On 8/13 there will be a mandatory parent meeting. There will be a folder with all the necessary paperwork for each student. The goal would be for students to return the paperwork on Friday
- Ms. Novia continued Amy's explanation of the three budgets. She gave a presentation of the activity and district budget numbers for Seussical. The Booster budget has paid for the choreography, backdrops, props, set supplies, print shop, and movers (lights). The activity/district budget has paid for the rights, music director, sweeteners and TTA fee. Our current costs for Seussical are $15,896.50.
- Crystal will send out sign up genius for volunteers soon.
- She is also attending a local Seussical play and asking to borrow costumes.

VIII. Student Report

- Mason presented a lighting pitch. This included renting lights to go around the stage for Seussical. The costs are $850 for 10 lights. We would also buy ladders to hang the lights that would cost about $250. We would purchase the ladders which the troupe could continue to use for future productions.
- Mason presented a video on how the lighting would insinuate the play and answered questions regarding the renting process and logistics of hanging the lights.
- Motion to pay for renting the lights and purchasing the ladder and supplies by Amy Lloyd for the amount of no more than $1,400; 2nd by Scott Masters, all in favor.

IX. Secretary Report
