Studio payment policy

Studio Couture by Cindy Payment Policy

To reserve your session date, a non-refundable retainer of $175 is required at the time of booking. The retainer secures your date, covers the studios time and resources and is separate from any additional costs. Payment plans for collections are available.

All balances must be paid in full before final images, print orders, albums, or digital files are delivered.

Accepted payment methods may include credit card, debit card, e-transfer, or other approved methods listed on your invoice. Any declined payment, late payment, or missed installment may result in paused editing, delayed delivery, or cancellation until the account is current.

Payment plans are a courtesy and are only available for qualifying sessions or collections. Taxes, add-ons, rush fees, travel fees, and product upgrades are billed separately unless otherwise stated in writing.
