Vicky Adams Scholarship

In celebration of 55 years of Sopilka Ukrainian Dance School, the Board of Directors are pleased to announce the renaming of our Sopilka Scholarship

This yearly Sopilka scholarship will be renamed the
Vicky Adams Scholarship

Sopilka Ukrainian Dance School was founded in 1971, under the direction of Vicky Adams, as part of a Ukrainian language program at Holy Family Ukrainian Catholic Parish. Initially the school was called the South Winnipeg School of Dance. Several years later the name was changed to Sopilka Ukrainian Dance School

There will be a maximum of two scholarships awarded in the fall of each year, in the amount of $500.00 each. In order to qualify, applicants must meet the following qualifications:

- Must be a current Sopilka Ukrainian dance student, who has been dancing with Sopilka for a minimum of two years
- Must be enrolled in University or College
- Must have the ability to take initiative, display kindness to others, and have a passion for Ukrainian culture
- Must show interest to continue to dance with Sopilka Ukrainian Dance School

Applications must be submitted by October 15, 2025 to sopilkatreasurer@gmail.com and include the following:

- Proof of post-secondary registration
- Letter of intent on how you meet the requirements for the scholarship, specifically 500-700 words on why you should receive the Vicky Adams Scholarship and how you have demonstrated your initiative, kindness and passion for Ukrainian culture.

Those who have been chosen as a scholarship recipient will be notified by email, no later than November 1, 2025 and must agree to have their name published in all public formats. Recipients may only receive a scholarship once within a four year period.

Any questions regarding the scholarship or application can be email to:
